

Figure S3. Illustrative pictures of one panelist participating in the clinical study on Asian mature skin and who applied active formula containing EGCG-G1. Picture on the left presents cheek skin aspects on day 0, before first application, and photography on the right presents the same facial area after 56 days of treatment.