

$p=0.1389$, unpaired t test

The number of decidual T cells remained stable over the course of pregnancy and constitutes about 20% of decidual lymphocytes (unpublished paper, DimovaT).