

Figure S1. Predictive value of Ratio-PA in plasma cell neoplasm patients requiring treatment. Kaplan-Meier and Log-rank tests for overall survival (OS) of patients receiving treatment according to the revised international staging system (RISS-I -II and -III), the Ratio-PA (high or low), and the eligibility for autologous stem cell transplantation (ASCT) (upper plots) or relapse after stringent complete response (lower plots).