

Figure S1. The pedigree of the present family. Squares are males and circles females. Solid squares represent affected individuals (P, the proband).

Figure S2. The domain structure of keratin 2 and the mutation detected in the present patient. The location of the mutation in this patient is indicated by the black arrow.