

Figure S1. Maps of the Mount Pitt section of the Norfolk Island National Park where we conducted counts of the Tasman parakeet (Cyanoramphus cookii) showing the distribution of rodent bait stations. Dark grey lines show the increase in elevation at 20 m intervals.