

Supplementary Table 1: Personal vs. Property Hurricane Exposure Items.

Type of Hurricane Exposure	Self-Reported Hurricane Harvey Experience
Personal Hurricane Exposure	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Family member missing</li> <li>Family member died</li> <li>Friend missing</li> <li>Friend died</li> <li>You were physically harmed</li> <li>Someone in your family was physically harmed</li> <li>Friend was physically harmed</li> <li>Your life was in danger</li> <li>The life of family member(s) was in danger</li> <li>Evacuated quickly with no time to prepare</li> <li>Prolonged separation from family</li> <li>Pet missing or dead</li> <li>Witnessed death/injury to self/ household/ other i.e. neighbor</li> <li>Assisted with rescue and recovery self/ household other i.e. neighbor</li> </ul>
Property Hurricane Exposure	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Loss of power/electricity</li> <li>Displaced from home</li> <li>Home damaged or destroyed</li> <li>Business damaged or destroyed</li> <li>Vehicle loss</li> <li>Major property loss other than home i.e. furniture</li> <li>Disaster resulted in unemployment (self)</li> <li>Disaster resulted in unemployment (household)</li> <li>Unable to access necessary medical care</li> <li>Unable to access gasoline for vehicle</li> <li>Great difficulty in commuting to work/school due to transportation issues/ gasoline shortage</li> <li>Great difficulty accessing food for self/family</li> <li>Significant financial loss</li> <li>Flooding in home caused by Hurricane Harvey</li> </ul>