

Supplementary Figure S1. Complete amino acid substitution detected during collect time. We did not find changes in the presence or absence of amino acid substitutions in the spike gene. Not available means that the region could not be covered during sequencing, so it does not have mutation data.