

Figure S2. Scatter plots between NPQ_F and PRI (a) and between NPQ_F and ΔPRI (b) in experiments with actions of ALs with different intensities excluding the point with zero illumination by actinic light. Average values of parameters and standard errors from Figure 4 were used. R^2 is the determination coefficient. Bars show standard errors.