

* When multiple tissue samples were available from a single patient, the tumor tissue sample that was therapy-naïve, collected shortly after SSA administration, or from the primary site was selected.