

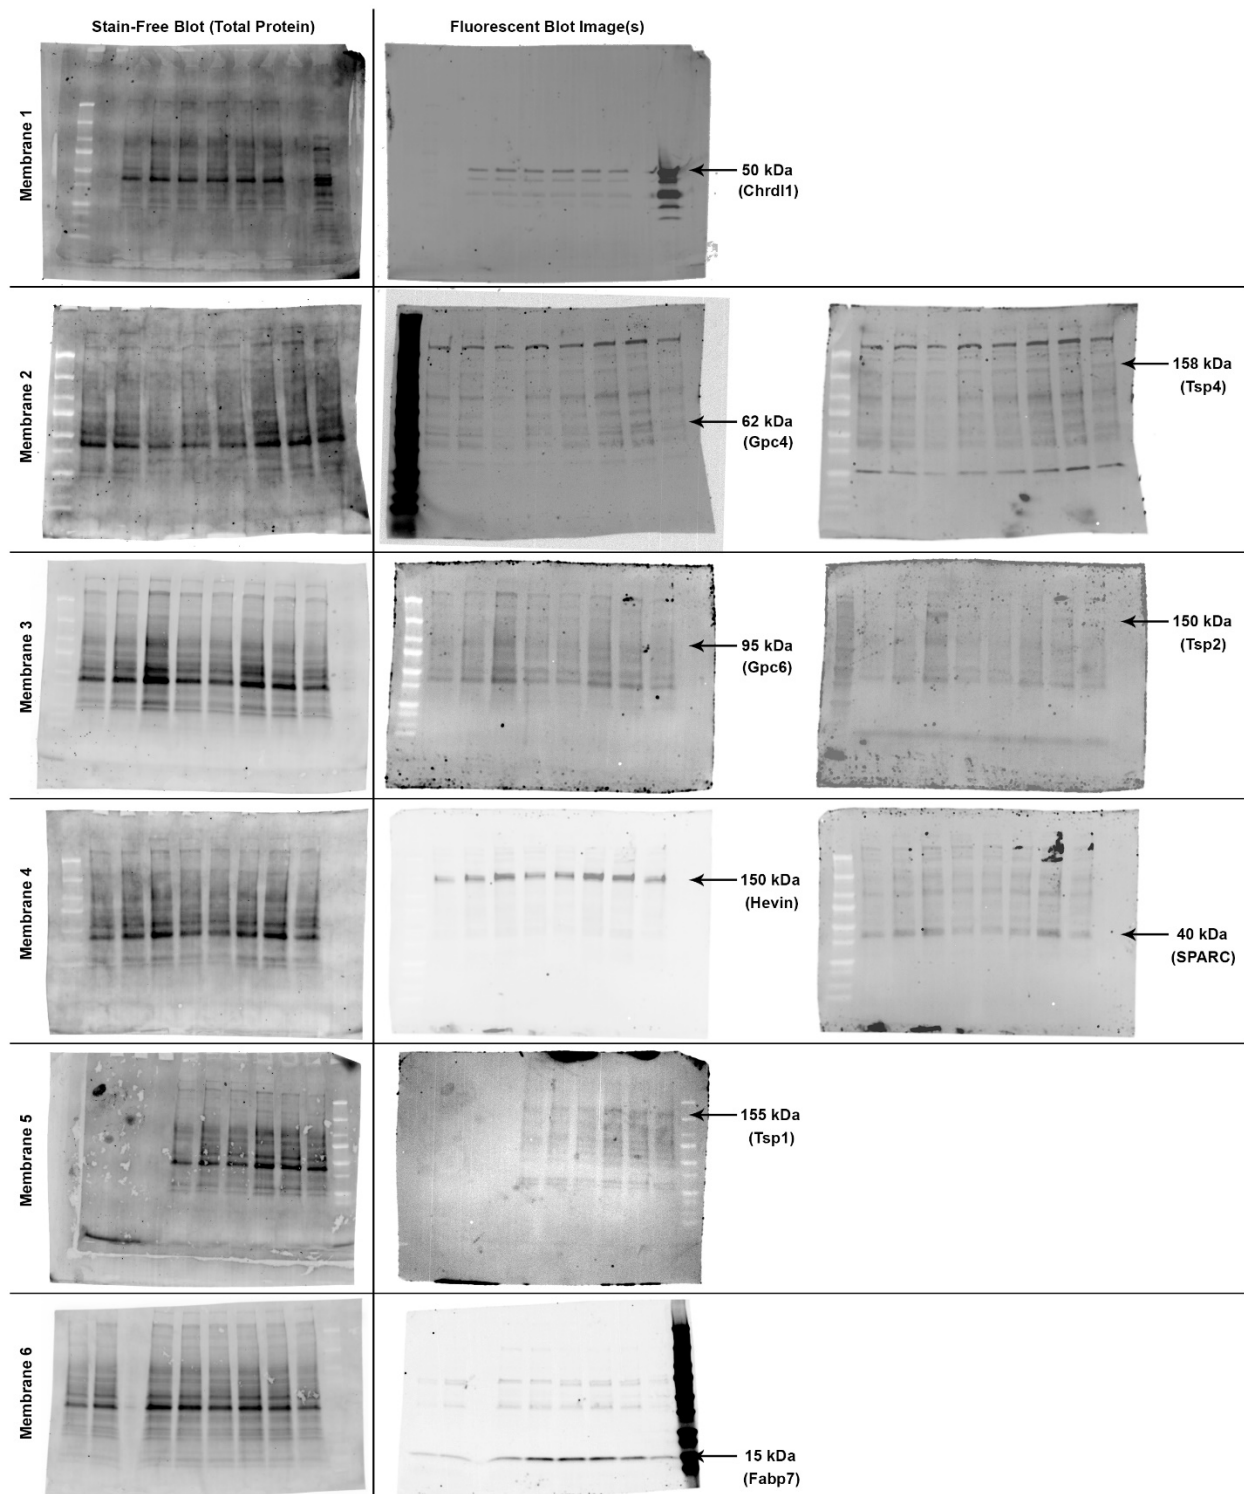

Figure S1

Uncropped Western blot membranes showing total protein content used for normalization along with the associated fluorescent blot images for the various primary antibodies probed.