

Figure S1. Example of the triplicates of treated and untreated samples (green wells) in 24-wells plates. The plates were kept on a rotary shaker at 37°C for 24 hours. Transparent wells contained 2 mL metal solutions set up as positive control.