Drug Delivery across the Blood-Brain Barrier for the Treatment of Brain Diseases

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue focuses on recent advances in the discovery, characterization, translation, and application of drug delivery across the BBB. The aim is to stimulate research interest in this field toward both improving the existing while developing new strategies for efficient drug delivery across BBB, which will be useful for the treatment of brain diseases.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Biomedicines (ISSN 2227-9059) is an open access journal devoted to all aspects of research on human health and disease, the discovery and characterization of new therapeutic targets, therapeutic strategies, and research of naturally driven biomedicines, pharmaceuticals, and biopharmaceutical products. Topics include pathogenesis mechanisms of diseases, translational medical research, biomaterial in biomedical research, natural bioactive molecules, biologics, vaccines, gene therapies, cell-based therapies, targeted specific antibodies, recombinant therapeutic proteins, nanobiotechnology driven products, targeted therapy, bioimaging, biosensors, biomarkers, and biosimilars. The journal is open for publication of studies conducted at the basic science and preclinical research levels. We invite you to consider submitting your work to Biomedicines, be it original research, review articles, or developing Special Issues of current key topics.
