

Special Issue

Multicomponent Pharmaceutical Solids

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue welcomes original research articles and reviews devoted to all aspects related to the field of multicomponent pharmaceutical solids. Our interests include fundamental to applied research, using theoretical and experimental approaches, the development of synthetic methods, screening of multicomponent materials, structure–activity rationale, salt-co-crystal continuum identification, enhancement in physicochemical/mechanical/pharmacokinetic performance, as well as the functionality and applications of multicomponent pharmaceuticals solids.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Welcome to Crystals, the journal dedicated to the fascinating world of crystallographic research! Crystals are more than mere decorative elements; they hold the key to understanding the fundamental structure of matter. Our mission is to explore the crucial significance of this research across various fields. From medicine to technology, chemistry to geology, crystals play a vital role. Their structure provides insights into new advanced materials, innovative drugs, and groundbreaking technologies. Through Crystals, we delve into the microscopic world to discover solutions that will shape the future. Join us on a journey through the Crystals, where science merges with beauty and innovation.
