

Special Issue

Engineering and Medical Aspects of the Use of Electromagnetic Field Energy 2021

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue aims to present solutions based on sensor systems, tomography, and IT, as well as electrotechnical and electronic systems using machine learning and optimization that can potentially be used in industry, environmental work, or medicine. The main emphasis will be on interdisciplinary work and research fields that include experimental, theoretical, and computational work focused on artificial intelligence, data analysis, and data interpretation.

Guest Editor

Prof. Dr. Ewa Korzeniewska

Vice-President of Polish Society of Applied Electromagnetism, Faculty of Electrical, Electronic, Computer and Control Engineering, Lodz University of Technology, Stefanowskiego 18/22, 90-924 Łódź, Poland

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Energies is an international, open access journal in energy engineering and research. The journal publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes, and letters. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts which bridge the gaps between research, development and implementation. The journal provides a forum for information on research, innovation, and demonstration in the areas of energy conversion and conservation, the optimal use of energy resources, optimization of energy processes, mitigation of environmental pollutants, and sustainable energy systems.

Author Benefits

Open Access:

free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, RePEc, Inspec, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

CiteScore - Q1 (Control and Optimization)
