Crossing “Data, Information, Knowledge, and Wisdom” Models—Challenges, Solutions, and Recommendations

Message from the Guest Editors

Special Issue "Crossing “Data, Information, Knowledge, and Wisdom” Models—Challenges, Solutions, and Recommendations" has been OPEN! Topics for discussion in this Special Issue include but are not limited to:

- Application of knowledge representation techniques to semantic modeling
- Data integration, metadata management, and interoperability
- Data, information, and knowledge transformation/conversion
- Data mining and knowledge discovery
- Data models, information semantics, and query languages
- Data provenance, cleaning, and curation
- Data visualization and interactive data exploration
- Development and management of heterogeneous knowledge bases
- Domain modeling and ontology building
- Information storage and retrieval and interface technology
- Management of data, information, and knowledge hybrid systems
- Multimedia and cross-modal “Databases”

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The concept of Information is to disseminate scientific results achieved via experiments and theoretical results in depth. It is very important to enable researchers and practitioners to learn new technology and findings that enable development in the applied field.

Information is an online open access journal of information science and technology, data, knowledge and communication. It publishes reviews, regular research papers and short communications. We invite high quality work, and our review and publication processing is very efficient.

Editor-in-Chief

Prof. Dr. Willy Susilo

School of Computer Science and Software Engineering, University of Wollongong, Northfields Avenue, Wollongong, NSW 2522, Australia
