Feature Papers in Animal Science

Message from the Collection Editor

Dear Colleague, This Special Issue aims to collect high-quality papers related to all aspects of endothermic and aquatic animals science, including anatomy, behavior, embryo manipulation, feeding, nutrition, physiology, histology, diseases, animal management, health and welfare, genetics and breeding, gut development, functional food, microbial ecology, gut microbiome, next-generation sequencing, and immunology. We encourage researchers from various fields within the journal's scope to contribute papers highlighting the latest developments in their research field or to invite relevant experts and colleagues to do so. Original research, editorials, reviews, communications, commentaries, case reports and other types of articles are kindly invited to improve knowledge and practice for animal science.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Life (ISSN 2075-1729) is an international, peer-reviewed open access journal that publishes scientific studies related to fundamental themes in life sciences. Some papers are published individually, while others are submitted for inclusion in special issues with guest editors. You are invited to contribute a research article, essay, or a review to be considered for publication.
