Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Medicines (ISSN 2305-6320) is an international, peer-reviewed, and open-access journal aimed at disseminating cutting-edge research in the field of drug discovery and clinical application. It publishes original research papers, research communications, letters, and systematic reviews. The contents of the papers handled are manufacture of new drugs, exploration of drug-delivery systems, therapeutic effect, action mechanism, and their modulation by intrinsic and extrinsic factors. We look forward to handling your contributions in the very near future.

Editor-in-Chief

Prof. Dr. Hiroshi Sakagami

Aims

This journal welcomes manuscripts covering a wide range of aspects, including the search for target molecules (e.g., receptors), specificity, side effects, hormesis (bimodal actions), emergence of resistance during long-term administration, potentiation by combinational treatment with more than two drugs, and factors that modify its pharmacological actions (such as sex differences, aging, environmental factors, and physiological fluids).

Scope

The following items are suggested (lined up alphabetically):

- Clinical application of drugs
- Combination effects of more than two drugs
- Drug development
- Hormesis
- Identification of the target molecule of the drug
- Modulation factors of drugs
- Overcoming drug tolerance
- Pharmacodynamics
- Pharmacokinetics
- Specificity and adverse effects of drugs

Author Benefits

Open Access

Unlimited and free access for readers

No Copyright Constraints

Retain copyright of your work and free use of your article

Thorough Peer-Review

No Space Constraints, No Extra Space or Color Charges

No restriction on the maximum length of the papers, number of figures, or use of colors
