Challenges and Possibilities for Sustainable Development in a Baltic Sea Region Context - Volume 2

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue on “Challenges and Possibilities for Sustainable Development in a Baltic Sea Region Context–2021” promotes an interdisciplinary approach with an emphasis on research relevant to the Baltic Sea Region in the context of sustainable development in a broad sense. Papers are welcome in one or more of the following areas: climate change, renewable energy, sustainable societies, sustainable food systems, sustainable water resources, urban–rural development, sustainable mobility, circular economy, sustainable tourism, and education for sustainable development (ESD). Further, this Special Issue intends to document and promote scholarly research and projects that stress the challenges as well as show how efforts within the different fields reported above can contribute toward the implementation of sustainability in practice in the Baltic Sea Region.
