

Special Issue

Exploring Transformative Approaches to Contemporary Territorial Challenges: Between Advocacy, Coproduction and Entrepreneurial Approaches

Message from the Guest Editors

The purpose of this Special Issue is to collect state-of-the-art research that examines these new urban realities and explores the themes of advocacy, co-production and entrepreneurial initiatives connected to social innovation and transformative economies. In particular, we are seeking contributions that focus on three critical issues:

- Local advocacy groups in marginal areas;
- Urban regeneration initiatives led by place-based institutional schemes;
- Open social innovation programs
