

Special Issue

Sustainable Logistics and Environmental Protection

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue aims to contribute to sustainable logistics by presenting innovative approaches and applications as well as empirical findings that promote the positive impact on the social and/or environmental dimensions of sustainability. Here're some topics for your reference.

- Novel approaches for increasing the transparency in GHG across logistics networks (measuring/assessing/accounting for GHG emissions);
- Innovative approaches for increasing transparency across supply chains regarding social aspects;
- Novel approaches for reducing GHG emissions across logistics networks and supply chains;
- Transport systems analyses with a focus on environmental aspects (air, maritime, land);
- Innovative data collection and processing approaches for the analysis of logistics systems and supply chains regarding sustainability aspects;
- Empirical papers/computational analyses;
- Real-world applications/case studies;
- Systematic literature reviews.
