

Special Issue

Application of GIS and Spatial Data Analytics in Studies of COVID-19

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to capture emerging applications of GIS and spatial data analysis for multidisciplinary COVID-19 studies. The applications should demonstrate how recent advances in geospatial big data and spatial analysis provide new perspectives and methods towards understanding the impacts of COVID-19. We invite contributions that leverage data sources with a spatial dimension (public health records, socio-economic statistics, surveys, mobile phones, social media, transportation, remote sensing, etc.) and applied GIS and spatial analysis methods, including geovisual analytics, spatial statistics, GeoAI, space-time simulation, big data analysis, and spatial optimization. We also welcome studies that create new computational methods and tools in GIScience that further advance its applications in multidisciplinary pandemic research.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

I encourage you to contribute a research or comprehensive review article for consideration for publication in Sustainability, an international Open Access journal which provides an advanced forum for research findings in areas related to sustainability and sustainable development. Sustainability publishes original research articles, review articles and communications. I am confident you will find the journal contributes to enhancing understanding of sustainability and fostering initiatives and applications of sustainability-based measures and activities.
