

Special Issue

Cultural Heritage and Regional Development Policies

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue provides a forum to discuss the potential of cultural heritage as a contributor to regional and local development and the design of regional and local policies aiming to positioning the destination at the tourist market, addressing the issue from conceptual approaches to more empirical ones, including case studies. In this regard, successful cases are welcome as well less succeeded ones, as one can also learn from failure. Keywords:

- Regional resources endowment and singularity of the tourism product
- Cultural heritage and authentic tourist experiences
- Regional sustainable tourism strategies
- Residents commitment towards tourism development
- Cultural heritage and tourists' visit motivations
- Tourism employment creation and growth of regional economies
- Regional infrastructures and facilities and tourist potential
- Natural and cultural heritage preservation and tourist potential
- Regional policies and local tourism development
- Case studies
