Special Issue

Technology and Innovation Management for Sustainable Society

Message from the Guest Editor

Sustainability is becoming a global agenda and includes complex and wide-ranging issues and goals for sustainable environment and society. Innovation is expected to contribute to the development of a sustainable society and to resolve conflicts amongst different goals and stakeholders. However, our expertise in sustainability and innovation is still at a nascent stage to meet expectations and to realize a sustainable society. This Special Issue covers a wide range of topics on technology and innovation management related to the scope of sustainability. It will include but is not limited to:

- Conceptual propositions on technology and innovation for sustainability;
- Systematic reviews on technology and innovation for sustainability;
- Methodology for the analysis, design, and implementation of innovative technology, products/services, and systems to realize sustainable society;
- Practices and case studies on technology and innovation management for sustainability.

We expect that this Special Issue will serve as a forum for anyone with an interest in and passion toward the realization of a sustainable society through technology and innovation.
