Selected Papers: Symmetry 2019—The Second Edition of the International Conference on Symmetry

Message from the Guest Editors

The Second Edition of the International Conference on Symmetry, supported by the University of Zaragoza and the MDPI journal Symmetry, will be held in Benasque, Spain, 1–7 September, 2019. We welcome scholars, engineers, students, and enterprises to join this large event, and submit abstracts to our conference website. To promote the results of abstract submissions, all accepted extended abstracts will be published in the journal Proceedings. Full papers are invited to publish in this Special Issue of the journal Symmetry and the conference participants will be granted a 20% discount on the publishing fees. Manuscripts submitted to Symmetry will receive a thorough peer review and fast publication.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Symmetry is ultimately the most important concept in natural sciences. It is not surprising then that very basic and fundamental research achievements are related to symmetry. For instance, the Nobel Prize in Physics 1979 (Glashow, Salam, Weinberg) was received for a unified symmetry description of electromagnetic and weak interactions, while the Nobel Prize in Physics 2008 (Nambu, Kobayashi, Maskawa) was received for the discovery of the mechanism of spontaneous breaking of symmetry, including CP symmetry. Our journal is named Symmetry and it manifests its fundamental role in nature.
